

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

|                  |   |                       |
|------------------|---|-----------------------|
| WILLIAM AYER,    | ) |                       |
| Plaintiff(s),    | ) |                       |
|                  | ) |                       |
| v                | ) | C.A. No. 04-10137-MLW |
|                  | ) |                       |
| C.P. BORG, INC., | ) |                       |
| Defendant(s),    | ) |                       |

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

WOLF, D.J.

June 16, 2004

This action is one of about 225 civil cases assigned to me. I am also responsible for about 40 criminal cases, involving more than 50 defendants, many of whom have been incarcerated pending trial. Accordingly, I am interested in making arrangements for the fair and efficient progress and resolution of some of my civil cases.

Upon review of my civil docket, I believe that the above captioned case, and the administration of justice would benefit from being reassigned for all purposes to Magistrate Judge Collings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c)(1) and (3). If such reassignment occurs, Magistrate Judge Collings will decide all pretrial issues, schedule a firm trial date, conduct any trial that is necessary, with or without a jury, and any appeal would